Looking for a place where your time and service can make an impact? Our Homebound Hearts ministry includes several residents who have asked to receive the Lord's Supper in their homes. What better way to see God work when we empty ourselves for others and get to see our own spirits enriched and filled! Please consider volunteering, or as a family or as a small group to serve in this way. Contact Marcelia Sawyers with questions. ## Mark Your Calendars For The Sally Gary Conference

In today's culture, there are many competing ideas and beliefs about gender and sexuality. In the church, we also have many questions: How do we respond to those close to us who struggle with same sex attraction or have questions about their sexual identity? How do we love those who hold different beliefs than we do? How do we help our children have a healthy and holy view of Scripture and sexuality?

Join us on the weekend of January 28-29 as we welcome Sally Gary, renowned author, speaker, attorney, and director of CenterPeace, a Christian organization that helps churches navigate these and many other questions regarding faith and homosexuality. Sally has helped Churches of Christ across the country engage in this critical conversation in a loving, respectful and Christ-honoring way. Please make plans to join us for a workshop on Saturday and in worship on Sunday.
