Thank you!

Dear Broadway Church Family,
How does one write a thank you note that adequately expresses the amount of love and gratification we have for you. How can we thank you for helping us during the most difficult time in our life. How does one thank another for all the food, paper goods, hand holding, prayers, and pure love given during this time. Well, this is our feeble attempt to do exactly this. Thank you for the most beautiful service ever done at our church! Thank you for the lunch before the service. Karl, words cannot express the love you have showed during our time of grief. The great office staff has shown unconditional love! The only thing our family can say to you is THANK YOU! We love you! We are so glad to be part of the wonderful Broadway family. Thank you for your thoughtful Children's Home donation gift in the name of our beautiful son, Nicholas Hon. Our church family is so wonderful and a God send!

God Bless,
Zach, Laura, Noelle, and Nathan

Thank You

My mother, Dewby Ray, was only a member at Broadway for a few short years and yet was made to feel a part of this fellowship in every way! She loved coming on Sundays and seeing everyone along with participating in most of the women's activities. For all of you who took the time to greet her each Sunday, or take her to eat or somewhere else special, and for those who visited her when she was unable to be at church, I thank you. I appreciate the love that was shown to her and then to me and my family! The cards were meaningful to mother and me, the food brought to us at difficult times was wonderful and thoughtful and the cards and prayers were felt and appreciated. This congregation has certainly touched our lives forever!

Love,
Nancy Ray
