Thank you

Dear Broadway Family,

Words are not sufficient to express to you all how thankful we are for the care and compassion you extended to us following the passing of Steve's mother. The cards, prayers, and sweet words of comfort will be remembered always. The presence of those of you who were able to attend her memorial service lifted our spirits on a difficult day. How blessed we are to be a part of such a loving church home.

Very sincerely,
Deanne and Steve Stone

Welcome, Gary Head!

Gary began as Campus Minister in June of 2017 after completing a Master of Divinity degree at Duke Divinity School in North Carolina. Prior to that, Gary served as an interim youth minister for Broadway in the summer of 2014, and as a campus ministry intern for three years before that while he attended Lubbock Christian University to get a Bachelor of Arts in Youth and Family Ministry.

Gary married Kayli on Cinco de Mayo 2013, and they ate tacos at their wedding. Their first child, Levi, was born in August 2016. Most of Gary's free time is dedicated to his family, but he also loves to read, write music, drink coffee, and have good conversation. Additionally, Gary is on a mission to eat at every locally owned restaurant in Lubbock, and he is looking for folks who want to join him on that journey—and that means you, dear reader.

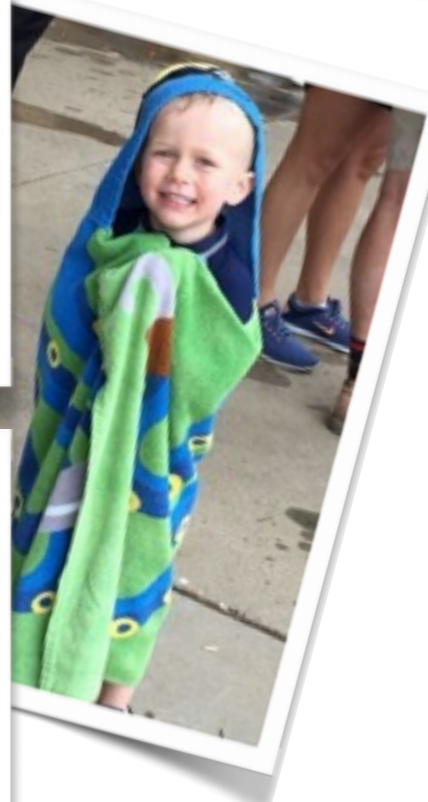

Come on Sunday, June 18 at 3:00-4:30pm to meet Gary, Kayli, and Levi. Then stick around to hear Gary at the 5:00pm service.
