Living Holy in Unholy Times

PURSUE GOD • BUILD COMMUNITY • UNLEASH COMPASSION

A NOTE FROM KARL IHFE

Welcome to Broadway! I'm really glad you're here today and I hope you have a great experience!

Broadway traces its roots back to 1890, and ever since that first worship experience we've made it our mission to share the love of Christ with our friends and neighbors here in Lubbock and around the world. Through worship, community, and service, we strive to live as visible witnesses to the love and grace of God that has so powerfully changed our lives.

Regardless of where you are on your spiritual journey, I hope you're encouraged by your time with us and find the answers you need to take your next step. Please let me know if we can help you in any way. I hope to see you again soon!

OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOU AND YOUR FAMILY

Broadway Children's Ministry

Bway Kids focuses on walking with children and their families as we deepen our faith in our great God. We seek to serve together, wonder together, and live out our call to love God, each other and the world. Check out our Bible Classes at 9:15 as we sit in God's Word and see how He wants all of us, no matter our age, to be a light in the World.

Atlas Campus Fellowship

College students: If you're restless, if you feel like you've been wandering, if you need community — come and join a group of students committed to finding community and direction right here in the middle of the chaos. We are all about making room for restless hearts to find home with Christ. If you're interested in finding community, contact Gary Head at g.head@bwaychurch.org.

The Upside Down

1 Peter 1:1-12 (NIV)

¹ Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To God's elect, exiles scattered throughout the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, ² who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to be obedient to Jesus Christ and sprinkled with his blood:

Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you, ⁵ who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶ In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. ⁷ These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸ Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹ for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰ Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who spoke of the grace that was to come to you, searched intently and with the greatest care, ¹¹ trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when he predicted the sufferings of the Messiah and the glories that would follow. ¹² It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.
